

MULTIPLICATION WAR

Materials Needed: deck of cards

Split the deck among two players. At the same time, each player puts down two cards face up and multiplies their cards together. The player with the largest product gets to keep all four cards.

